Boarding Contract:

Boarding charges are figured by multiplying the daily charge by the number of days stayed. Any portion of a day may be rounded up to a day at the discretion of this kennel. The customer is responsible for notifying the kennel of any changes in the length of the pet's stay. Animals picked up early without notification may be subject to the charges for the number of days remaining on this contract. You will be charged a $25.00 fee for cancelling or not showing up for a boarding reservation. All payment is due upon collection of the animal. No animal will be released until the bill is paid in full. Any animal left for 10 days after the scheduled pick up date without notification to the kennel is subject to removal. In this case, the owner is not only liable for all boarding charges but also removal charges and the other charges listed below. The owner is also responsible for any fees incurred by the kennel if their bill is turned over to an attorney or collection agency.

If an animal becomes sick, while in the kennel, and needs veterinary attention, an available veterinarian will administer it, and the owner of the animal will be liable for the cost of the treatment.

Pet Parents agree to allow LedgeWood Kennel and its employees to use his or her pet's name and any images or likeness of his or her pet taken while the pet is at LedgeWood Kennel, in any format/and use for LedgeWood Kennel media, marketing, advertising, illustration, trade or promotional materials.
